

Hike on the Revellata Peninsula

Hike across the majestic Revellata Peninsula, located just outside Calvi.

The hike takes you on a tour of the island, walking on small tracks along the seaside with magnificent views of the rhyolite cliffs and the turquoise sea. We walk 9.2 kilometres with an elevation gain of 343 metres, surrounded by the beautiful Corsican Maquis with the 15th-century Citadel of Calvi in the background.

The area is known for its rich marine life. At the end of the hike, we stop at a small pebble beach for lunch, where you can sunbathe or go snorkelling and discover Revellata's marine life. On a sunny day you have an underwater visibility of over 25 meters!
