

Taste of Balagne

Get a taste of Corsica as you explore villages of the Balagne region and taste some local delicacies

The Route des Artisans de Balagne is a signposted trail through some of the region's most attractive villages and local workshops. We have selected some of its highlights.

We start in the village of Calenzana with a visit to Christian at "E Fritelle", where we have the opportunity to taste classic Corsican biscuits. Our next stop is Lunghignano, where we learn about local olive oil, taste it and have the chance to buy some. After following a winding road with beautiful views, we reach Sant'Antonino and taste some refreshing lemon juice. There is also time to explore the small hilltop village and enjoy the breathtaking views over the bay and the sea.

Our final stop is Cateri, a charming village in the Balagne region. Here, we enjoy a three-course meal accompanied by delicious local wine. Afterwards, there is time to stroll around the village before returning to the hotel.
